We, the junior exhibitor and parent/guardian certify that we have read, understand and will abide by all rules and regulations of the California Youth Ag Expo. We further certify that we have not administered to and have no knowledge that this entry has received any substance not approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and/or the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) for food animals.

The California Youth Ag Expo reserves the right to condemn and/or disqualify any animal, live or slaughtered, found in violation of the drugs, chemicals or feed additives as described above and the exhibitor will forfeit all auction sale and/or premium money if the animal is disqualified. If an animal(s) is disqualified for testing positive for any drug or medication or unapproved chemical, the exhibitor may forfeit all rights and privileges to exhibit livestock in the future at the California Youth Ag Expo.

The exhibitor agrees to submit any animal, breeding and/or market, entered by him/her to inspection by any veterinarian appointed by the California Youth Ag Expo Board of Directors and agrees to have such animal submitted to such tests as may be requisitioned at any time. The California Youth Ag Expo also reserves the right to have ultrasound, DNA, blood and/or urine collection for testing and must witness, seal and sign the sample; thus verifying the sample to be properly collected and prepared for analysis. The exhibitor waives any right of action which he/she might have for any action taken under this rule, and releases the California Youth Ag Expo and the veterinarian from any and all claims or demands whatsoever in connection with the inspection or testing of any such animal or any ruling or action taken by reason of the conclusion of such veterinarian.

As breeding animals are not entering the food chain, the USDA Wholesome Meat Act does not apply; however, breeding animals will be closely screened for any performance enhancing compounds. This includes, but is not limited to steroids, diuretics, anti-inflammatories, tranquilizers and painkillers.

I fully understand and grant permission to the California Youth Ag Expo to report any and all rule infraction to the North American Livestock Show and Rodeo Managers Association (NALSрма) Rule Infraction Database (RID).
